

Instructions and About this Privacy Statement Template

This document includes a Privacy Statement template that you can customize for your blog or website. Add your personal or website information where indicated by the brackets and highlight such as The Diary of an Alzheimer's Caregiver. This statement was created for a standard blog. Your blog might include (or not include) certain information, so you may want to modify the language in this template to fit your blog. There are optional sections / language in italics and bold. You can delete language that does not apply to your blog and/or add appropriate language where necessary.

If you collect any personal data, a Privacy Policy is required by US law. "Personal" data includes anything that could identify an individual, such as their email address, first and last name, billing and shipping address and credit card information. Additionally, many third party advertisers (such as Google AdSense and Amazon) require that you have a privacy statement on your blog or website.

You want to be clear in your privacy policy what information you or your advertisers collect and relay that information to your website visitors. Include only honest information in your statement. If you are unsure of the technical aspects (such as the storage of data or information), err on the side of caution.

Consult with an attorney before using this document. This document is not a substitute for legal advice or services. Refer to my Terms of Use for more details.

The following privacy statement template has been prepared for general educational and informational purposes only. It does not constitute legal advice or a solicitation. Your access and use of this form is not intended to create, and receipt thereof does not constitute formation of, an attorney-client relationship. Although I used my professional experience in creating this template, I do not guarantee any results and will not be liable for any damages or losses caused by the use of this document. Always seek legal advice regarding your specific factual situation and circumstances before relying on the information provided on my website and in this document. By using this template, you agree that this does not constitute legal advice.

You should not rely upon this document or information for any purpose without seeking legal advice from an appropriately licensed attorney, including without limitation to review and provide advice on the terms of this form, the appropriate approvals required in connection with the transactions contemplated by this form, and any securities law and other legal issues contemplated by this form or the transactions contemplated by this form.

PRIVACY POLICY

Last Updated: 12/4/2018

The Diary of an Alzheimer's Caregiver ("us," "we" or "our") owns and operates <https://thediaryofanalzheimerscaregiver.com> ("Website"). This privacy statement applies to our collection, use and sharing of personal information we receive from visitors and users of this website.

We use personal information solely for the purpose of providing and improving this Website. By using the Website, you agree to this privacy policy, including the collection and use of information in accordance with this privacy statement. If you disagree with any aspect of this privacy policy, please discontinue use of this Website.

1. Information Collection, Use, and Sharing

While using the Website, you may provide us with certain personally identifiable information that can be used to contact or identify you. Personally identifiable information includes any of the following: your first and last name, your email address, your shipping and/or billing address and/or your credit card information if you make a purchase on this website (collectively "Personal Information").

Like many other sites, we collect information that your browser sends when you visit our Website ("Log Data"). This Log Data may include information such as your computer's Internet Protocol address ("IP address"), browser information, Internet Service Provider ("ISP") information, the pages of our Website that you visit, time spent on those pages and other statistics. We may also use third party services such as Google Analytics to collect, monitor and analyze Log Data.

"Cookies" are files with small amounts of data, which may include an anonymous unique identifier. Cookies are sent to your browser from a web site and stored on your computer's hard drive. Like many other websites, we use cookies to collect information solely for the purposes of analysis of content performance.

This website includes advertisement and those advertisers may collect, use, store and disclose data and information collected from visitors, including information related to your demographic information. Our advertising partners include Amazon or SheKnows Media. Each of these advertising partners has their own privacy policy for their site, which you can review at each of their sites.

You can turn off the use of cookies at any time in your browser's settings. Please refer to the help section of your browser for instructions on how to do this. If you choose to disable cookies, this may affect your ability to access or use some portions of our Website.

2. Personal Information Use and Sharing

Except as otherwise stated in this privacy policy, we do not sell, trade, rent or otherwise share your Personal Information with third parties without your consent. We may share Personal Information with vendor service providers of this Website, such as the servers for our email communications. Those vendors use your Personal Information only at our direction and in accordance with this policy.

In general, any Personal Information that you provide to us is used solely to help us communicate with you. For example, we use Personal Information to contact Website visitors in response to questions, solicit feedback and share promotional offers. See Section 4 for more information regarding our email marketing.

In the event that we undergo a business transaction, such as a merger, acquisition or partial sale with another company, your Personal Information may be transferred. You consent that such transfer may occur and is permitted by this policy.

3. Information You Provide

When you leave a comment on this website, you are giving implied consent for this comment and your information to appear on our website. In leaving a comment, your name and email address will not be shared with any third party. We may use your email address solely to respond to your comment. However, we are not liable or responsible for the actions of other individuals and the unauthorized use by such information that you voluntarily share.

We have public social media accounts and social sharing options on our website. If you choose to interact on social media with us or our accounts, you are advised that any interactions on those accounts are publicly available.

If you choose to share a testimonial on this Website, we will first obtain your written permission via email before including your name and testimonial on our website.

4. Email Marketing

If you choose to opt in to our email newsletter, you will occasionally receive emails regarding updates to this website. You may opt out of our email newsletter at any time. Our email newsletter is managed through an email list management provider and opting out of one of our email lists may not necessarily remove you from all emails. Should you have any issues or problems unsubscribing, please contact us at Rena@theblogging911.com

If you correspond with us via email, we may retain the email messages and correspondence, but will not share this information with any third party.

5. Security

We make every attempt to keep your Personal Information secure, but we realize that no transmission over the internet is 100% secure. We strive to use commercially acceptable means to protect your Personal Information, but we cannot guarantee absolute security. By using this Website, you acknowledge that you understand and agree to assume these risks.

6. Links to Other Websites

This Website includes links to other websites. Once you leave our website or are redirected to a third-party website or application, you are no longer governed by this Privacy Policy or our Website's Terms and Conditions.

When you click on links on our Website, they may direct you away from our site. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of other sites and encourage you to read their privacy statements.

7. Updates

This Privacy Policy may change from time to time and all updates will be posted on this page.

8. Questions and Contact Information

If you would like to: access, correct, amend or delete any personal information we have about you, register a complaint, or simply want more information contact us at: Rena@theblogging911.com.
